Harrietsham OPAL is on Social Media

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Exciting news, OPAL at Harrietsham is now on social media. You can follow us on the following pages by using the links below or search for 'Opal at Harrietsham.'

We will be posting lots of updates about our playtimes - including information about what's new, play assembly discussions, celebrations, fundraising, donations and a whole lot more. We want to use these social media platforms to positively promote our play, to keep you informed and to reach out to contacts for regular supplies of our loose parts.

It is important to us that we show the children the positive side of social media, whilst teaching them to stay safe online. Please do check out the NSPCC site for more advice - What is social media? | NSPCC.

All of our social media pages are aimed for our parents and guardians, but please do share the information within them with your children under supervision. We hope you enjoy them and we look forward to sharing lots with you over the coming weeks.

Kind Regards

Mrs Mannering
OPAL Lead
